South Kingstown Police Department Launches Recruitment Campaign with Open House on July 23rd

South Kingstown, RI – The South Kingstown Police Department is proud to announce the launch of its 2025 recruitment campaign, beginning with a Recruitment Open House scheduled for Wednesday, July 23, 2025, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at police headquarters, located at 1790 Kingstown Road.

This initiative invites interested individuals to explore a rewarding career in law enforcement. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet with officers, tour the facility, and ask questions in a casual, informative setting.

“We are proud to serve in the best town in Rhode Island,” said Chief Matthew C. Moynihan. “We are seeking individuals who value service, integrity, and professionalism—traits that define the culture of our department.”

Whether you are just beginning your career or considering a professional change, the Recruitment Open House is a chance to learn more about the opportunities available within the South Kingstown Police Department.

If you—or someone you know—would be a strong fit for a career in law enforcement, we encourage you to attend or share this opportunity. It’s a chance to learn more about what it means to serve with the South Kingstown Police Department and take the first step toward making a difference.
