

Matthew C. Moynihan
Chief of Police

South Kingstown Police Department

1790 Kingstown Road
South Kingstown, Rhode Island 02879
(401) 783-3321 Fax (401) 789-8139
www.southkingstownri.com

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release
December 2, 2025

South Kingstown Police Arrest Man Who Crashes into Local Coffee Shop *Driver refuses breathalyzer, charged with DUI

At approximately 1:25 AM on Tuesday, December 2, 2025, the South Kingstown Police Department arrested Mark A. DeLong, age 30, of 135 Great Neck Road, North Kingstown for suspicion of driving under the influence of liquor and or drugs. His arrest was preceded by his crashing his 2025 Tesla into TLC Coffee Roasters

“Driving under the influence of alcohol or cannabis is never acceptable,” said Matthew C. Moynihan, Chief of Police for South Kingstown. “There is no excuse for impaired driving—use a rideshare, call a friend, or stay put. Choosing to drive impaired is reckless, and the extensive damage to this small business is a direct result of that poor decision.”

Mr. DeLong was held overnight and arraigned this morning at Washington District Court.

###

CONTACT:
Chief Matthew C. Moynihan
(401) 255-4866
mmoynihan@southkingstownri.gov