FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Parking Ban Effective Sunday, January 25 at 12:00 PM Due to Forecasted Snow

South Kingstown, RI — January 23, 2026

The Town of South Kingstown has declared a parking ban effective Sunday, January 25, beginning at 12:00 PM and remaining in effect until further notice, due to forecasted snowfall.

During the parking ban, no parking is permitted on any public roadway, municipal parking lot, or municipally owned parking area. This restriction is necessary to allow the Department of Public Works to safely and efficiently treat roadways and conduct snow removal operations.

Vehicles found in violation of the parking ban may be subject to ticketing and towing.

If you have any questions related to plowing operations or the parking ban, please contact the Highway Department at (401) 284-3299.

The Town of South Kingstown appreciates the cooperation of residents and visitors as crews work to ensure safe travel conditions throughout the community.
